Let's Start!

I want to visit a new district!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about directions to places in a limited range of social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can ask and give directions.
- I can tell someone where something is located.
- I can talk about places in a city.

Ask your partner:

- What district in your city is interesting? Why?
- What can you do there?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa asks Aunt Nelly where she should go in San Francisco. Where does Aunt Nelly suggest?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Aunt Nelly: What are you going to do today, Vanessa?
Vanessa: I want to visit a new district! Where should I go?
Aunt Nelly: Hmm, how about Japantown?
Vanessa: Japantown? Sounds exotic!
Aunt Nelly: Yes, there are many things to see there.
Vanessa: How do I get there?
Aunt Nelly: Well, do you remember how to get to Haight-Ashbury?
Vanessa: Yes.
Aunt Nelly: From there, you could take a bus up Divisadero Street to Geary Boulevard.
Vanessa: OK.
Aunt Nelly: When you get to Geary, transfer to bus #16. That takes you by Japantown.
Vanessa: What's in Japantown?
Aunt Nelly: The Peace Pagoda is delightful, and there are many restaurants you can try.
Vanessa: Sounds great!

On the radio: Up next, we go to Japantown and talk to the fishermen.

Aunt Nelly: Oh, I almost forgot! You should visit the fish market!
Vanessa: What a coincidence!
