

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

The fish market: it's a bustling place!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you eat fish? Why or why not?
- Where do you buy it? At the market?
At the grocery store?

Can Do Statements

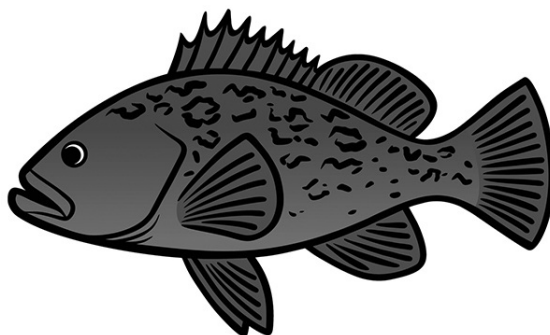

- I can talk about places in a city.
- I can ask and provide information in a public place.
- I can ask who, what, when, where questions.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa listens to a radio show about the fish market in San Francisco. What time does the market start?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Laura: Good morning and welcome to Food Talk with Laura Browning. This morning I'm visiting the Japantown Fish Market here in sunny San Francisco. It's a bustling place. It's full of every type of fish imaginable. If you want to see a fish market in action, you have to get up very early in the morning.
- Laura: This is Takeshi Ito, a fishmonger here in Japantown. Mr. Ito, What time do you start work?
- Ito: We are here at 3 a.m. We sort and check a large assortment of fresh fish.
- Laura: When is it open to the public?
- Ito: Many people arrive at 5:30 a.m. to buy the best fish. You have to get here early!
- Laura: The early bird gets the worm, I guess!

Let's Practice!

Let's get information about the fish market!

*Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use: arrive at / hare / here / early / arrived / sort / sorting.

1. We are _____ at 3 a.m.
2. We _____ and check a large assortment of fresh fish.
3. Many people _____ 5:30 a.m. to buy the best fish.
4. You have to get here _____ !

Let's Practice!

What are the details of the fish market?

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

1. When time do you start work?
2. What is it open to the public?
3. Wear is the fish market?
4. Whose works at the market?

Extension Activity

You are the host of a radio show!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Introduce a district of your city.
- Write 10-15 sentences about it.
- Give details to your listeners.
- Practice reading your sentences aloud.
- Record yourself on a computer.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about places in a city.

☐
☐

I provide information about a public place.

☐
☐

I write about places in a city.

☐
☐

Target Words

- bustling (adjective): busy; a lot of people and action
e.g. The fish market is a bustling place!
- imaginable (adjective): possible to imagine or think about e.g. We sell every fish imaginable at the market.
- in action (expression): doing a certain activity
e.g. See the fish market in action in the early morning.
- fishmonger (noun): a person who sells fish
e.g. Mr. Ito is a fishmonger at the market.
- to sort (verb): to organize into categories
e.g. We sort and check the fish.
- assortment (noun): a variety; a mixture
e.g. We have a large assortment of fish.

Learning Points

Wh-Questions

You use Wh-questions to get specific information about places, people and things. You often ask Wh-questions to request information in a public place, for example, when you travel.

Question Word	Meaning
What	Asks about a thing
Who	Asks about a person
Where	Asks about a place
When	Asks about a time
Why	Asks about a reason

Examples:

- When is it open?
- What time do you start work?
- Where is the fish market?
- Who works at the market?

