

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: The doctor can see you now ...

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you visit a doctor?
- How far do you have to travel for an appointment?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the silent gh.
- I can express negative statements.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Let's Explore!

Why does Aunt Nelly need help?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Aunt Nelly: I need your help with something.

Vanessa: What is it? What's wrong?

Aunt Nelly: My doctor thought I should try alternative medicine for my arthritis. He thinks my smoking and my weight are part of the issue.

Vanessa: Maybe he's right. Are you going?

Aunt Nelly: The office booked an appointment for me at the clinic in Japantown.

Vanessa: Oh, I see. At what time? How do you get there?

Aunt Nelly: That's the problem. The clinic isn't near any public transportation.

Vanessa: Well, you have a couple of options. Ask your friend Elizabeth to take you. Could you take the subway and then walk?

Aunt Nelly: It's too far. My knees get swollen. I even have to fight to get up three stairs at home.

Vanessa: Maybe your doctor should send you somewhere else, closer to home.

Aunt Nelly: Good idea. There must be a clinic in this neighborhood.

Let's Practice!

It's* time to practice saying words with the silent gh.

*It's is a contraction of it is.

The "silent gh" has NOT voiced sound for the gh combination.

Instructions: Underline the silent sound in each word or sentence. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. right
2. weight
3. fight
4. thought
5. Maybe he is right.
6. He thinks my smoking and weight are part of the issue.
7. I even have to fight to get up the three stairs at home.
8. My doctor thought I should try alternative medicine for my arthritis.

Let's Practice!

Time to practice using contractions*. What is the long form of the contraction in each sentence?

*"Contractions" are often used when speaking, but not in formal written English.

Instructions: Choose the correct option.

1. It's too far. It is / It has
2. How'd you get there? How had / How did
3. The clinic isn't near any public transportation. is not / has not
4. That's the problem. That is / That's not

Extension Activity

You are going to write a dialogue about going to the doctor like Aunt Nelly and Vanessa.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a 8-10 line dialogue.
- Include 4 words with the silent gh.
- Include 2 contractions like That's a good idea.
- Read the dialogue aloud with a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write a dialogue about going to the doctor.

☐ ☐

I include silent gh words in the dialogue.

☐ ☐

I use contractions when talking about going to the doctor.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- clinic (noun): a place where people get medical help
e.g. The clinic was so busy this morning.
- alternative (adjective): not usual or traditional e.g. They recommended alternative medicine for my knee.
- weight (noun): a measurement that says how heavy a person or thing is e.g. My weight goes up and down during the year.
- knee (noun): the middle part of the leg that bends
e.g. My knees are hurting after the soccer game.
- swollen (adjective): to become larger than usual
e.g. I hit my knee on the table and now it is very swollen.
- to fight (verb): to work very hard at something
e.g. I had to fight through the pain.
- to get up (expression): to climb
e.g. It was hard to get up the stairs.
- public (adjective): open and available to all people
e.g. The public transportation was very good.

Learning Points

Silent Letters

In English, there are some silent consonants and vowels that are not pronounced. Here are some examples of these silent letters in words.
Practice saying the example sentences.

Letter	Words	Example
Silent b	climb comb	Do you want to climb a mountain with me?
Silent c	muscle	I have strong muscles in my legs.
Silent d	Wednesday	I went to the doctor on Wednesday.
Silent e	hope write	I like to write sentences.
Silent g	sign foreign	Robert is a foreign student.
Silent gh	weight	He thinks my smoking and weight are part of the issue.
Silent h	what where	Where are you going?
Silent k	knee knowledge	My knee is hurting.

