Let's Start!

Sushi, Teriyaki, Tempura ... Let's go to a Japanese restaurant!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like Japanese food? Why or why not?
- What is your favorite Japanese food?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can ask who, what, when, where questions.

Let's Explore!

Irasshaimase*! Vanessa goes to a sushi restaurant. What does she order?

* In a Japanese restaurant, the waiter yells "Irasshaimase!" It means welcome.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Hmm ... I'm ravenous! Oh, a sushi place - perfect!

Waiter: Irasshaimase! Welcome to Sushi Station! Table for one?

Vanessa: Yes, thank you.

Waiter: How about right here?

Vanessa: Could I sit near the window, please?

Waiter: Of course. Right this way, please.

Vanessa: Thank you. Can I have some water, please?

Waiter: Here you are. Here is our set menu.

Vanessa: Hmm, what is a bento?

Waiter: A bento is a lunch box.

Vanessa: What comes in it?

Waiter: You get rice, tempura, sushi and your choice of salmon or chicken teriyaki.

Vanessa: That's a lot of food! OK, I'll take Bento A - the one with chicken.

Waiter: Very good, Miss. Here you are. Bento A.

Vanessa: Excuse me, can I get a fork, please? I can't use chopsticks very well.

Waiter: Certainly. Here you are. Enjoy your meal.

Let's Practice!

I'll take* Bento A, please.

*You use "I'll + take" or I'll have when you order something,

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.
