Let's Start!

Hmm ... sounds tricky! No, no! It's easy!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about directions to places in a limited range of social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can ask and give directions.
- I can tell someone where something is located.
- I can talk about places in a building.

Ask your partner:

- How do you feel about giving directions? Is it easy for you? Why or why not?
- What do you do when you get lost?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa wants to go to the bakery. Is it nearby? What directions* does the passerby give her?

* "Nearby" is an adverb not a preposition. It means close to somewhere.

 Head up, go straight, hang a left, and quick right are all examples of directions.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Excuse me, can you tell me how to get to the bakery?
Passerby: Which one?
Vanessa: Uh, I think it's called Panya ... ?
Passerby: Panya? Yes, it's nearby!
Vanessa: Cool!
Passerby: You head up this street to the lights.
Vanessa: OK.
Passerby: Hang a left and then a quick right.
Vanessa: Mmhmm.
Passerby: The Panya Bakery is on your left, across from the pagoda.
Vanessa: Oh! The Peace Pagoda! I can see it from here.
Passerby: The bakery is inside the Seiko building. You have to go through the revolving doors.
Vanessa: Hmm ... sounds tricky.
Passerby: No, no! It's easy!
Vanessa: OK, so I go up this street, hang a left at the lights and then a quick right.
Passerby: You got it.
Vanessa: Thank you!
Passerby: You're welcome. I hope you find it!
Vanessa: Me, too!

Let's Practice!

Hang* a left and practice your speaking!

*"Hang" is a casual word for turn.
